

Oceanside Police Arrest Homicide Suspect

Oceanside Police Detectives have made an arrest in the early morning homicide that occurred today in the 100 block of Pacific Street.

At 2:33am, police were called to 118 South Pacific Streets regarding reports of a man down and unresponsive. Police and Fire personnel arrived at the apartment complex and located a 23 year old white male deceased from an apparent wound to the victim's neck area.

In the early part of the investigation, police were able to locate witnesses at the apartment complex. Evidence and information obtained throughout the day during interviews lead police to arrest 29 year old Oceanside resident Kade Kundrat. Kundrat is a resident at the apartment complex where the crime occurred.

Preliminary information as to the cause of the crime is still being worked out by detectives and a search of the suspect's apartment is on-going.

Kundrat is being booked into the Sheriff's Detention Facility in Vista on one count of murder.

###